

January Table Topics

From Growing Book by Book

What if everybody at this table committed to do a kind act this week?

What if you went outside and everything had turned blue?

What if there were no cars?

What if you found the tree outside was growing money instead of leaves?

What if you became President of the United States?

What if a snowstorm happened tonight?

What if you stayed the same age you were now for the rest of your life?

What if Martin Luther King, Jr. were still alive today?

What if it started to rain orange juice and toast?

What if every day was a snow day?

What if all the animals escaped from the zoo?

What if we ran out of toilet paper?

What if it never got dark outside?

What if basketballs didn't bounce?

What if there were no televisions?

What if you lost the sense of smell for a week?

What if all the letter b's turned into p's?

What if you were a superhero?

What if bikes could fly?

What if you could take a trip anywhere in the world?

What if babies could talk when they are born?

What if your clothes grew as you grew?

What if you could be in the Olympics?

What if you planted a seed outside your window at night and it grew all the way to the sky the next day?

What if porcupines had feathers instead of spiny needles?

What if you were seven feet tall?

What if you could see through walls?

What if you found a hidden door in this room?

What if we had tails?

What if you could have any wish you wanted?

What if books came alive?
