

Welcome to your rescue mission Super Inferrer! Will you be able to save Teddy? Get ready! You will find the next clue in a dark place where spoons, forks and knives rest for the night.

And now your next clue! Glue, paint, scissors and construction paper are all around. Can the next clue be found?

Good job Super Inferrer! Fly off to the area where your wet shirts and socks are waiting to dry.

You are getting closer to Teddy! Look under the place you rest your head at night.

Could Teddy be floating on his back playing with his rubber ducky?
